

Ms. Archana Chatterjee Brief Profile

Archana Chatterjee Project Manager, IUCN

Ms Archana Chatterjee is working as Project Manager, Ecosystems for Life: A Bangladesh-India Initiative, and leading the India component. Archana has more than seventeen years of experience with non-governmental and UN organisations. Before joining IUCN, she was working with the UNESCO- New Delhi Office as National Project Coordinator, World Heritage Biodiversity Programme, India. She has also worked as Head, Regional Programme on Himalayan High Altitude Wetlands Rivers, WWF-India. Archana holds M.Phil and Masters in Environmental Sciences from Jawahar Lal Nehru University, New Delhi. She has also completed international training programmes on 'Decision Making in Natural Resource Management' from Wageningen University, The Netherlands and 'Transboundary Water Management' from Sweden.